

Have you met Lynda?

Lynda.com is a large online library of instructional videos and a resource for those looking to develop skills in the latest software, project management, social media and a wide range of other topics, which is available for University staff and students to access for free.

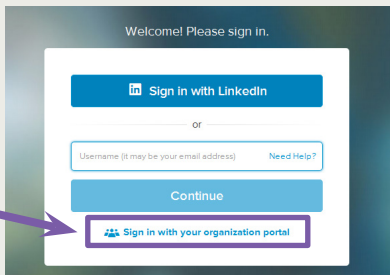

lynda.com

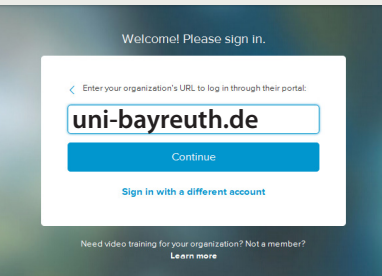

How do I access lynda.com?

1. Go to lynda.com (English) or lynda.com/de (German).
2. Click on „Sign In“ or „Anmelden“.

3. Click on „Sign In with your organization“.

4. Type in „uni-bayreuth.de“ and click on „Continue“ or „Fortfahren“.

5. The Identity Provider of the University of Bayreuth prompts you to login with your UBT credentials. Enter your personal username and password.
6. Afterwards you can choose on lynda.com between the English and German video library.

Using lynda.com on your mobile device additionally allows you to download course content for offline viewing. The Lynda app is available for Apple, Android or Windows devices in their respective app stores.

lynda.com

